Henry B. Plant Museum Celebrating 90 Years Yearlong Celebration Kicks Off November 7th

Tampa, FL – On Tuesday, November 7, 2023, the Henry B. Plant Museum will begin a yearlong celebration honoring its 90th anniversary. Established in 1933 as the Tampa Municipal Museum in the south wing of the first floor in the former Tampa Bay Hotel, the Museum has been known to countless visitors as the Henry B. Plant Museum since 1974.

“Over the past 90 years the Museum has grown into a vibrant community resource,” said Lindsay Huban, Museum Executive Director. “The Board of Trustees and staff look forward to a full schedule of programs and events that will be both entertaining and thought provoking. We invite everyone to come celebrate this milestone with us!”

“This anniversary is a very special one and we look forward to celebrating with a variety of programs, activities, and events over the next year,” said Daniel Carpenter, Museum Relations Manager. “We are incredibly grateful for the support from so many that have made this day possible, and we welcome everyone to visit the Museum as we commemorate 90 years.”

Accredited by the American Alliance of Museums, the Henry B. Plant Museum welcomes more than 30,000 visitors from around the world each year. Original artifacts and furnishings, as well as a dynamic self-guided audio tour immerse visitors in the opulence of the 1891 Tampa Bay Hotel and its rich history.

The Henry Plant Museum interprets the Tampa Bay Hotel and the experiences of the diverse individuals who contributed to its success. The Museum ignites thought and transports visitors to another era through exhibits and innovative programs, so that they may be educated and inspired by the lifestyles, times and experiences of Florida's early tourist industry. The Museum is open Tuesday through Saturday, 10 am to 5 pm, Sunday, noon to 5 pm. Closed Mondays and select other dates. Plantmuseum.com
