Ideal Nutrition to Host Grand Opening Event at Tampa NoHo Store

Tampa, FL — Sep 2026 — Ideal Nutrition invites the local community to the official grand opening celebration of its Tampa NoHo location on Thursday, September 17, from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. The festivities will feature local vendors, exclusive promotions, a raffle drawing to win free meals, and a formal ribbon-cutting ceremony with the Tampa Bay Chamber at 1:00 p.m.

After a successful soft launch in July, the NoHo storefront has established itself as a go-to spot for convenient, chef-prepared meals designed for health-conscious lifestyles. The grand opening serves as an official introduction to the neighborhood, giving guests a chance to sample menu items, engage with the brand, and celebrate the milestone.

Ideal Nutrition is committed to making communities better by directly investing in the neighborhoods it serves. It honors key pillars of the community—including police officers, firefighters, EMTs, paramedics, active-duty military, veterans, and healthcare workers—with an everyday 10% discount and essential equipment donations. To fight hunger, the company also donates thousands of pounds of food annually to regional shelters and food banks.

“We don’t just open stores; we integrate into the neighborhood,” said Wolfgang Brunet, founder and CEO of Ideal Nutrition. “The response from Tampa has been incredible since July, and this celebration is a big thank-you to our early fans and an open invitation to anyone ready to simplify healthy eating.”

“The support from our neighbors since day one has been incredible,” said Franchise Owner Cindy Coronado. “This event is a celebration of the community, and we are thrilled to make healthy, effortless dining accessible to even more Tampa residents.”
