

Greenberg Traurig Elevates 3 Attorneys in Tampa

TAMPA – March 26, 2025 – Global law firm Greenberg Traurig, P.A. elevated Irina Khasin and Nicholas Kypriotakis to shareholders and Andrea E. Nieto to of counsel in the firm’s Tampa office. Firmwide, Greenberg Traurig announced the elevation of 92 lawyers to shareholder, of counsel, and local partner.

“These promotions reflect the firm’s commitment to recognizing talent and advancing the next generation of leaders. Irina, Nick, and Andrea are committed to taking their practices to the next level by delivering exceptional legal services to our clients. We are eager to leverage their dedication to drive continued growth and maintain the excellence in service that is the hallmark of our firm,” said David B. Weinstein, managing shareholder of Greenberg Traurig’s Tampa office and chair of the firm’s national Environmental & Toxic Torts Litigation Practice.

Khasin, a seasoned trial lawyer, has distinguished herself in government investigations, white-collar criminal defense, and complex civil litigation. With deep experience that includes over 30 jury trials as first chair, Khasin excels in oral advocacy, reflective of her track record arguing high-stakes cases in both federal and state courts. Her experience as a prosecutor with both the U.S. Attorney’s Office and Fulton County District Attorney’s Office sharpened her skills, which she now employs to guide clients through the most serious challenges facing companies and individuals in today’s business environment.

Kypriotakis is an experienced transactional attorney whose practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, and joint venture and equity financing transactions. He has wide-ranging experience advising corporate executives and investment firms on critical business transactions in industries such as software, technology, consumer products, health care, financial and professional services, infrastructure, and manufacturing. His prior work as a principal with a leading global investment firm contributes to his corporate acumen and client focus.

Nieto, an accomplished labor & employment lawyer, regularly assists employers with navigating complex workplace-related issues and resulting litigation throughout Florida and around the country. Her diligence and creative approach help clients achieve favorable outcomes, including preliminary and permanent injunctions to protect against the misappropriation of trade secrets and to enforce restrictive covenants.
